2016 CONFERENCE

EVOLUTION OF MASS MURDER:
FROM THE TEXAS TOWER SHOOTING TO ISIS

May 23-24, 2016
Texas A&M University, College Station, Texas

This conference will highlight the process of “becoming” a mass murderer through the examination of cases that illustrate who they are and why they do what they do, including the evolution of their mindset and belief system.

CONFERENCE PRESENTERS

- Dr. Reid Meloy - a board-certified forensic psychologist (ABPP) and consultant on criminal and civil cases throughout the U.S. and Europe.
- Dr. Mary Ellen O'Toole - a former FBI agent, spending more than half of her Bureau career in the organization's prestigious Behavioral Analysis Unit.

REGISTRATION:
Seating is Limited! Register Early at hr-conference.tamu.edu

Early Registration Fee
until March 28 = $285

Registration Fee
March 29- April 29 = $350

YOU’LL LEARN:
1. five major characteristics of the Mission Oriented Shooter.
2. the phases of development for a mass shooter.
3. the 8 proximal warning behaviors for targeted violence by individual terrorists which demand active risk management.
4. the Terrorist Radicalization Assessment Protocol (TRAP-18)
5. how the TRAP is applied to individual cases.
6. and much more!

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

- Law Enforcement
- Parole, Probation & Correctional Officers
- Forensic & Clinical Psychologists
- Prosecutors & Members of the Judiciary
- Mental Health Professionals
- Academic Professionals involved with Behavioral Intervention Teams or Threat Assessment Teams